COUNTY OF LOUDOUN
BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Resolution of Recognition

MILTON FRIEDMAN DAY

WHEREAS, economist Milton Friedman, born on July 31st, 1912 to humble working-class Jewish immigrants, worked throughout his life advancing human freedom and serving the public good through his works as an award-winning scholar, author of a dozen books, Newsweek columnist, television host, and advisor to world leaders; and

WHEREAS, Friedman's unwavering devotion to greater individual and economic freedoms greatly influenced Presidents Gerald Ford, Richard Nixon and Ronald Reagan, and British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher, leading to newfound economic growth and renewal in both nations; and

WHEREAS, in addition to economic policy, Friedman also successfully worked to abolish the military draft and later dedicated his life to the cause of extending greater educational opportunities to children of all economic status; and

WHEREAS, Friedman has been noted as one of the 20th Century's most notable figures and honored for his work with the John Bates Clark Medal, the National Medal of Science, the Presidential Medal of Freedom and a Nobel Prize in Economics; and

WHEREAS, Friedman's advocacy of international free trade helped shape Loudoun County's modern economy; and

WHEREAS, on November 16th, 2006, Milton Friedman passed away at the age of 94;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT, on this date of December 19th, 2006, the Loudoun County Board of Supervisors does hereby recognize Milton Friedman, and by virtue of this resolution, give notice to our citizens that July 31st, 2007; and all subsequent anniversaries thereafter, is "Milton Friedman Day."
